ESSAYS

1. Ryan Doltz had one of the largest funerals Arlington National Cemetery has seen for a non-dignitary, the largest building at Picatinny Arsenal was named in his honor and the street he grew up on now bears his name. In a short paragraph, describe what it is about his story that you think resonates so well with people.
2. When taking the oath of enlistment for the National Guard, Ryan swore to “Support and Defend the Constitution of the United States.” This clearly does not mean to stand outside the National Archives and defend a few pieces of parchment. In a well-thought out essay, describe what you think it means.
