Please answer the following question if you are applying as a member of the New Jersey National Guard:

What is your greatest accomplishment in the military and how has this affected others around you?

ESSAY

When taking the oath of enlistment for the National Guard, Ryan swore to “Support and Defend the Constitution of the United States.” This clearly does not mean to stand outside the National Archives and defend a few pieces of parchment. In a well thought out essay, describe what you think it means.
